

Day on the Hill Parking

Please note that some lots require you to use a smart phone and scan the QR code to pay for your parking space. Others have kiosks that require you to input your license tag number and pay by debit or credit card in advance.

Tips:

- The closest lot is at the WeGo bus station lot between 4th and 5th Avenue (400 Charlotte Avenue).
- Free two-hour parking is available along 7th Ave. adjacent to the Nashville Farmers' Market, 900 Rosa L. Parks Boulevard.
- You may want to consider parking at Opry Mills shopping center and taking an Uber or Lyft to the Cordell Hull building, You may also park at the building that houses the NAMI Tennessee office at 1101 Kermit Drive.

Special needs? Individuals with accessible plates/tags can park in metered spaces for free. Tennessee Statute, T.C.A. 55-21-105(a) states: "No state agency, county, city, town or other municipality or any agency thereof shall exact any fee for parking on any street or highway or in any metered parking space. The parking privileges granted by this section are limited to any disabled driver or disabled passenger to whom the distinctive license plates or placards were issued."
